DESSERTS

Chocolate

800 TL

A warm dark chocolate soufflé served in a clay pot, enriched with dried figs and almonds from our garden. Accompanied by house-made almond ice cream and vanilla anglaise

Sütlaç

750 TL

Our chef's modern take on a childhood classic "rice pudding"; burnt village milk mousse, mastic cream, local walnut biscuit, Osmancık rice ganache, burnt rice pudding ice cream, Giresun Pikola hazelnuts and a delicate mastic tuile

Pear

700 TL

Baked local Mazı pear, filled with milk cream and served over traditional cotton candy -pişmaniye-, drizzled with caramel sauce

Katmer

750 TL

A refined interpretation of the traditional Antep katmer: layers of baked baklava pastry filled with semolina cream and pistachios, served with rare Kaymaklı dried clotted cream from Cappadocia and rich village milk kaymak

Sweet Yahni

800 TL

This recipe originates from the imperial kitchens of the Ottoman Palace during the time of Grand Vizier Damat İbrahim Pasha, born in Nevşehir. Passed down by Cappadocian chefs of that era, it features dried apricots, plums, figs, dates, and koftür –a traditional grape leather– slowly cooked in village molasses, served with village milk cream

House-Made Ice Cream Trilogy

750 TL

Three house-made ice creams, each crafted with seasonal fruits and nuts harvested from our garden: white mulberries, caramelized walnuts, and damson plums
